Well Becoming Stronger

The well drilled by E. J. Fulton for the government on the homestead of A. L. Taylor is gradually becoming stronger. The flow is more than double what it was when the pumping plant was first installed. The well on the tract of T. A. Hulsey has been drilled to a depth of 150 feet, and it is thought that a good supply of water has been installed.

Correction

Our attention has been called to a statement made last week that a prisoner in the custody of a deputy sheriff had been taken to Deming without being given the opportunity of changing his wet clothes. The prisoner was not taken all the way to Deming. When the arroyo in the Gap was reached it was impossible to cross, and the party returned to Columbus, making the trip next morning. The only reason he was not taken all the way was that they were unable to get there. The intentions were the same as stated. A party who was coming in for a year at the Alamo says it was possible that the deputy did not hear the prisoner's request for a change of clothes.

Burglars Caught in Act

Lothar Laggert and Jim Wilson were tried before Judge Peach Friday afternoon on a charge of burglary and were sent to jail in default of $1,000 bond. They had broken the lock and entered the store of J. H. Cox. They were caught by a provocation before they left the place and were released later and advised to leave town, having been missed from the store. They were picked up by the police Friday morning and when searched were found to have in their possession a knife taken from the store. This was the fourth case of burglary that has recently occurred and persons found on these men indicate they are the guilty parties in each instance.

A. G. Robertson and his daughter Billy, spent a few days in town this week. Mr. Robertson is now making his home in Lordsburg.
